Last Reviewed:	October 2015	Next review due:	March 2016
NQF Reference:	National Law section 172 Regulation 12, 168, 172 NQS 7

Rationale

To provide fair and consistent guidelines for the payment and recovery of outstanding accounts.

Aim

To ensure all accounts issued by Blackmans Bay Childrens Services clearly state all payment details and requirements and are issued and paid in a timely manner.
To establish procedures to be implemented where a debt becomes overdue; ensuring any debt owed to Blackmans Bay Childrens Services is followed up and recovered within the specified time frame.

Accounts Procedure

Blackmans Bay Childrens Services will undertake to issue monthly accounts for education and care as soon as practicable following the end of each month. Payment is due within the specified timeframe.

The account will detail the following:

- Payment terms: 'Payment is required prior to the end of the month following the date of the invoice'.
- A late payment fee will to be applied where applicable.
- Payment options:
 - In person (at the office at Ocean View 177b Roslyn Avenue),
 - Eftpos (at the office at Ocean View 177b Roslyn Avenue),
 - Cheque (at the office at Ocean View 177b Roslyn Avenue),
 - Direct deposit, or
 - Credit card.
- Current fee rates will be clearly detailed within each individual account and available at the service or via the service's website www.bbchildcare.org.

Blackmans Bay Childrens Services will take all reasonable steps to establish a payment arrangement or negotiate settlement of the outstanding fee prior to the commencement of legal action.

Blackmans Bay Childrens Services will be compliant with Family Assistance Law to maintain access to Australian Government payments made to families to assist with the cost of care, including Child Care Benefit (CCB), Special Child Care Benefit (SCCB), Grandparent Child Care Benefit (GCCB), Jobs, Education and Training Child Care fee assistance (JETCCFA) and the Child Care Rebate (CCR).

Blackmans Bay Childrens Services has provided delegation to the CEO to enter into arrangements with debtors for extended payment plans. Any such plans are to be documented in Debtor specific agreements.

The service shall at all times have the right to withdraw the availability of care without notice for non-payment of fees.

Parents will be notified at least 14 days before any changes are made to the way in which fees are charged or collected.
